A proven winner with 917 career victories, seven College World Series appearances and a national title, O'Connor brings a championship résumé and national credibility to Starkville.

QUOTABLE: ATHLETICS DIRECTOR ZAC SELMON

"Brian O'Connor is one of the most respected and accomplished coaches in college baseball. He's a national champion, a Hall of Famer, and a proven leader with a track record of building a championship-caliber program. Mississippi State is built to win at the highest level, and Coach O'Connor knows what that takes. From elite player development to consistent success on the national stage, his résumé speaks for itself. He understands the standard here and embraces the opportunity to elevate it even further. This is a defining moment for Mississippi State Baseball and a powerful step forward for our program, our players and our fans."

QUOTABLE: HEAD BASEBALL COACH BRIAN O'CONNOR

"Mississippi State represents everything I love about college baseball — tradition, passion and a relentless pursuit of excellence. I've coached against this program and followed it closely for years. The atmosphere at Dudy Noble Field is nationally recognized as the best in the sport. I'm incredibly honored and grateful for the opportunity to lead a program with this kind of legacy and fan base. Mississippi State has set the standard in college baseball, and I can't wait to get to work, build relationships and compete for championships in Starkville."

QUOTABLE: PRESIDENT DR. MARK E. KEENUM

"At Mississippi State, we have a long tradition of success in baseball. The "M over S," the Maroon and White, and hosting postseason in Starkville is woven into the very fabric of who we are and what we expect of our baseball program. Brian O'Connor is an elite level coach that aligns perfectly with our elite level program. His past certainly speaks for itself, but his clear understanding of the evolution and future of college baseball is clear. We are in the pursuit of championships. I am thrilled for Coach O'Connor, our student-athletes and Bulldogs everywhere as this is a historic day for Mississippi State."

A CHAMPIONSHIP PEDIGREE

O'Connor took over the Virginia program in 2004 and quickly elevated it into a national power. In 22 seasons, he led the Cavaliers to:

14 straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2004 to 2017
Seven trips to the College World Series, including a national title in 2015 and runner-up finish in 2014
66 NCAA Tournament wins, tied for the fourth most in the nation from 2009 to 2024
Seven College World Series appearances, the second most of any program nationally since 2009
Two ACC regular-season championships
Two ACC Tournament titles
Five 50-win seasons and 13 seasons with at least 40 victories

O'Connor's seven College World Series appearances are also the third most among active NCAA head coaches. Virginia had made just three NCAA appearances before his arrival. He also became the second-fastest coach in ACC history to reach 500 career wins.

TRACK RECORD OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

O'Connor has built a steady pipeline of professional talent while developing high-character players prepared to succeed beyond college baseball.

- 109 MLB Draft selections (players), including 14 first-round selections
- 36 players reached the major leagues, including Ryan Zimmerman, Sean Doolittle and Chris Taylor
- At least one first-round pick in five consecutive drafts from 2014 to 2018
- Seven seasons with multiple top-two-round draft picks
- Notable major leaguers coached include Danny Hultzen, Pavin Smith, Adam Haseley, Jake McCarthy, Andrew Abbott and Kyle Teel.

Since 2004 under O'Connor, 97 Virginia players earned All-ACC honors, which is the second most among ACC programs during that span. Cavaliers also received 42 All-America honors and 25 Freshman All-America selections. O'Connor also developed three ACC Players of the Year.

SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

Second among active Division I coaches in career winning percentage (.702)
Earned his 900th win on March 29, 2024

KEVIN MCMULLAN

Associate Head Coach

First Season

Indiana University of Pennsylvania (1990)

New Mississippi State head baseball coach Brian O'Connor has turned to a trusted and familiar voice as he builds his staff in Starkville.

O'Connor announced the hiring of longtime Virginia assistant Kevin McMullan as the Bulldogs' associate head coach. Widely regarded as one of the premier assistant coaches and recruiters in college baseball, McMullan spent the past 22 seasons at Virginia, including the last 19 as associate head coach under O'Connor.

"Mac has set the standard in player development for as long as I've known him," O'Connor said. "His record helping to make these young men better baseball players and better people is unmatched in college baseball. He is an elite recruiter, develops winners and brings a tireless work ethic to our program. I am very happy that Mac is coming to Mississippi State, and I am excited that it sends a powerful message about the vision we have for this program."

A two-time National Assistant Coach of the Year (2009, 2024), McMullan helped guide Virginia to seven College World Series appearances and a national championship in 2015. The Cavaliers averaged 42 wins per season during his tenure, reaching the NCAA Tournament 18 times.

He also oversaw one of the most productive offenses in the country over the last two decades, with Virginia leading the ACC in batting average over the past 15 years and hitting above .300 as a team in multiple seasons. In 2024, UVA ranked in the top five nationally in hits, runs, batting average, doubles, slugging percentage and on-base percentage, while belting a school-record 116 home runs.

Defensively, McMullan's impact was equally strong. Virginia owns the highest fielding percentage in the ACC since his arrival (.973), with 10 of his teams finishing among the nation's top 40 in that category. The Cavaliers eclipsed the .970 mark in fielding 16 times in his 22 years.

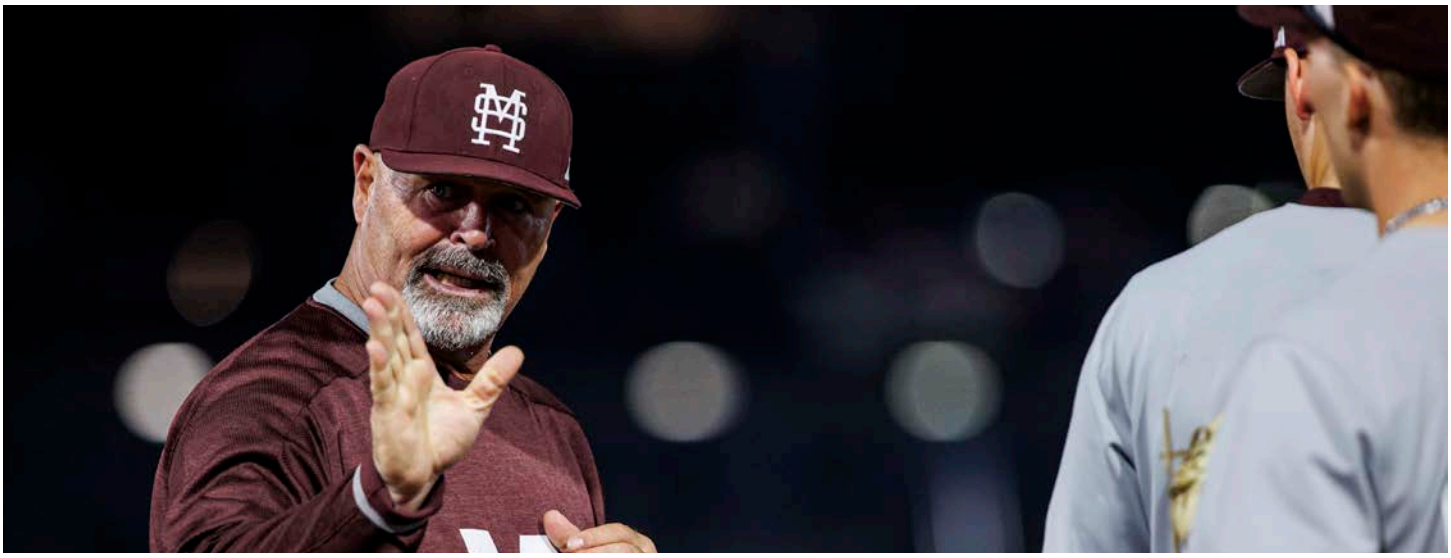
McMullan was voted by his peers as the nation's top assistant coach in a Baseball America poll of Division I head coaches in 2012, 2017 and 2020.

Over the course of his 27-year college coaching career, more than 100 players under McMullan have signed professional contracts, including 52 Virginia position players drafted and 17 who reached the major leagues. That list includes Ryan Zimmerman (Washington), Mark Reynolds (Milwaukee), Joe Koshansky (Colorado), Brandon Guyer (Tampa Bay), Sean Doolittle (Oakland), David Adams (New York Yankees), Chris Taylor (Seattle), Phil Gosselin (Atlanta), Jarrett Parker (San Francisco), John Hicks (Seattle), Derek Fisher (Houston), Adam Haseley (Philadelphia), Matt Thaiss (Los Angeles Angels), Joe McCarthy (San Francisco), Pavin Smith (Arizona), Ernie Clement (Cleveland), Jake McCarthy (Arizona) and Zack Gelof (Oakland).

Prior to Virginia, McMullan held coaching roles at East Carolina, St. John's and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He also managed in the Atlanta Braves organization and played professionally in the Yankees system. A two-sport All-American at IUP, McMullan was an NCAA standout in both baseball and football.

"Mississippi State is a place with championship tradition, passionate fans and the resources to be elite in everything we do," McMullan said. "Our players, coaches and staff will work every day in a way that respects and honors that tradition and earns the opportunity to compete in front of the best fanbase in college baseball. Hail State!"

McMullan is a 1990 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Sandra, have three children: Maggie, Emma and Jack. Their son Jack is currently baseball player at Liberty University. McMullan's father, John, was an All-American football player at Notre Dame and played in the NFL with the New York Giants, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Titans (now the Jets).



JUSTIN PARKER

Assistant Coach

Third Season

Wright State (2012)

Mississippi State head baseball coach Brian O'Connor has announced that Justin Parker will continue with the Diamond Dawgs as the program's pitching coach, solidifying a key role on the Bulldogs' staff.

Parker, who joined Mississippi State in 2024, has spent the past two seasons leading the Bulldogs' pitching staff and served as interim head coach for the final six weeks of the 2025 season.

"Justin is one of the most respected pitching minds in college baseball and he cares deeply about Mississippi State Baseball," O'Connor said. "He has an ability to recruit, communicate with the players and develop elite pitchers. I know Justin will put everything he has into our pitchers, both as young men and baseball players. I am excited for us to get to work."

In 2025, Parker's second season in Starkville, Mississippi State continued to rank among the nation's best on the mound. The Bulldogs finished No. 4 nationally and in the SEC in strikeouts per nine innings (11.8), No. 8 nationally and No. 5 in the SEC in strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.05), and No. 14 nationally and No. 6 in the SEC in WHIP (1.29). Parker's staff also compiled a 4.44 ERA, maintaining elite-level production against SEC competition.

That followed a remarkable debut season in 2024 in which Parker helped engineer one of the country's top pitching turnarounds. The Bulldogs improved their team ERA by nearly three runs (2.84), reduced walks by 104, and added 101 strikeouts from the prior year. Mississippi State posted a 4.17 ERA — the 13th-best mark in the nation and fourth-best in the SEC — while totaling 639 strikeouts, the ninth most in the country.

Under Parker's guidance, Jurrangelo Cijntje and Khal Stephen became the first MSU starting duo since 2019 to each post 80+ innings, eight or more wins, and 100+ strikeouts in a single season. The Bulldogs went on to have a school-record eight pitchers selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, including the entire weekend rotation — all taken within the first three rounds.

MSU has had 14 pitchers selected in the MLB Draft during Parker's two seasons in Starkville, which ties for the most of any program in the country. The Diamond Dawgs' 653 strikeouts in 2025 and 639 strikeouts in 2024 rank No. 4 and 5 respectively in the school's single-season record book.

Prior to arriving in Starkville, Parker spent two seasons as the pitching coach at South Carolina, where he helped the Gamecocks rank among the nation's best in ERA, strikeouts, and opponent batting average. In 2023, South Carolina posted the 12th-best ERA in the country (4.19) and totaled 608 strikeouts. His impact extended to Indiana, UCF, and Wright State, where his staffs consistently ranked among the top in the country in key pitching metrics.

Across his career, 34 pitchers under Parker's guidance have been selected in the MLB Draft, including 17 in the first 10 rounds. He is widely regarded as one of the premier developers of pitching talent in college baseball.

"The Mississippi State fanbase and community has welcomed me and my family to Starkville the last two years," Parker said. "I've always admired Coach O'Connor, his staff and their program, and I am excited to join them in creating something special at Mississippi State. I am looking forward to continue building on the unmatched tradition and support that this community offers. Hail State!"

Parker was selected in the sixth round of the 2008 MLB Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks and played three seasons professionally. He earned first-team All-Horizon League honors at Wright State in 2007 and 2008 and was a 2008 Academic All-District selection. He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational leadership from Wright State in 2012.

Parker and his wife, Angela, have two sons, Cameron and Caden. He is the brother of former MLB pitcher Jarrod Parker.

MATT KIRBY

Assistant Coach

First Season

William & Mary (2003)

Mississippi State head baseball coach Brian O'Connor has added another key piece to his inaugural coaching staff in Starkville, announcing the hiring of longtime Virginia assistant Matt Kirby as an assistant coach for the Bulldogs.

Kirby spent the past 14 seasons at Virginia, including 12 years as a volunteer assistant before being promoted to full-time assistant and recruiting coordinator in 2023. Known for his work with position players – particularly catchers and outfielders – Kirby played a key role in developing talent for one of the most consistent programs in college baseball. He also served as the Cavaliers' first base coach.

"Matt has been a steady and trusted presence throughout my time as a head coach," O'Connor said. "He's an elite teacher, recruiter, communicator and innovative thinker who has helped build championship teams. He will pour everything he has into Mississippi State, and I'm glad that he is joining our efforts in Starkville."

In his first season as a full-time assistant, Kirby helped Virginia reach its seventh College World Series appearance since 2009 and guided the Cavaliers through a late-season surge that saw them win 20 of their final 27 games. Over his 14 years in Charlottesville, UVA reached the NCAA Tournament nine times, captured five regional championships, and won the 2015 national title.

Virginia was named the program of the decade (2010–19) by D1Baseball.com, with O'Connor earning Coach of the Decade honors. Kirby helped UVA rack up 467 wins during his tenure in Charlottesville, the eighth most of any college baseball program in that span.

A former catcher at William & Mary, Kirby has been instrumental in developing some of the top backstops in college baseball. Under his guidance, four catchers earned All-ACC recognition, including first-round MLB Draft picks Matt Thaiss (16th overall, 2016) and Kyle Teel (14th overall, 2023). Overall, UVA produced 30 All-ACC position players and nine All-Americans during his time on staff.

Prior to Virginia, Kirby held coaching roles at Georgetown, Villanova, Brown, William & Mary and VMI. He served as a recruiting coordinator at both Georgetown and Villanova, where his 2008 signing class was ranked among the nation's top 100 by Collegiate Baseball.

Kirby is a 2003 graduate of William & Mary, where he was a four-year letterman and two-time team captain. He led the Tribe to a CAA Tournament title in 2001 and was a Second-Team All-CAA selection in 2002 while catching for future major leaguers Chris Ray and Bill Bray.

"I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunity to join Coach O'Connor's staff at Mississippi State," Kirby said. "The minute you step onto Dudy Noble Field, you immediately feel the rich tradition and can sense the passion and unrelenting excitement of the fanbase. I'm excited to help build something special in StarkVegas."

Kirby and his wife, Mallory, have two daughters, Renate and Layne.

NEWSOM AWARD

The Newsom Award was first awarded in 1990 by retired MSU professor and State's former NCAA Faculty Advisory Representative Walt Newsom. Named in memory of his parents, Carroll and Francis Newsom, the award annually honors the scholastic achievement of a Mississippi State athlete in each MSU sport, as well as overall male and female winners.

The largest on-campus facility in college baseball, Dudy Noble Field will see the 60th season of Mississippi State baseball at its current site in 2026. With over 1,700 games played at the venue, the Diamond Dawgs have a .726 winning percentage at the facility, which received a $68-million upgrade prior to the 2019 season.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletics director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. On April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk, and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Diamond Dawgs from Indianola, Mississippi.

THE ORIGIN

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus venue, Hardy Field, which was located several hundred yards to the south of the Bulldogs' home football venue, Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall and for the next two seasons the Diamond Dawgs played their home games at Redbird Park in Columbus, Mississippi, capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary home.

The tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers from the original Dudy Noble Field were transported to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season. Since that time, facility enhancements have followed at a steady pace to make the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" one of the finest all-around facilities on the road to Omaha. Among with numerous upgrades, the current site has seen two complete demolitions and reconstructions, the latest occurring during a three-year span from 2017-2019 and opening prior to the start of the 2019 campaign.

LEADING THE ATTENDANCE BOOM

With a laundry list of legendary names on its all-time roster, it comes as no surprise that Mississippi State ranks among the nation's attendance leader's year in and year out. The Dudy Noble Field faithful have sold out the reserved seating allotment every season since 1987.

Along with routinely hosting some of the largest crowds in the SEC, the last 12 three-day Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000 fans, with The Dude seeing 43,986 fans over the three-day Super Bulldog Weekend of 2023, the most in a single Super Bulldog Weekend.

MSU eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field for six-straight seasons between 2012-17, marking the first such occurrence in the program's history. Over the past four seasons, MSU has eclipsed the 300,000 mark in paid attendance, which had never been done before in four-straight seasons. In 2013, the Diamond Dawgs' five-millionth fan walked through the turnstiles at Dudy Noble Field. Since home attendance figures were charted starting in 1976, the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" has seen 8,317,535 fans rush through the gates.

In 24 of the last 25 seasons, Mississippi State has averaged 6,000 fans per game, including a record average of 11,094 during the 2023 campaign. Overall, State has eclipsed the 200,000-fan mark 17 times since 2002, with a school-record 373,784 viewing the 2019 home schedule.

Of the top 25 all-time college baseball on-campus attendances, Dudy Noble Field finds itself on the list 24 times, most notably owning the all-time on-campus attendance record of 16,423 on April 15, 2023. The Bulldogs own all of the top 20 marks in NCAA on-campus history and are the only NCAA baseball program to boast on-campus attendances of 14,000 or more. The five largest NCAA Super Regional crowds have all assembled in Starkville, Mississippi, as well.

From April 14-16, 2023, the Bulldog faithful flooded the gates at Dudy Noble Field to the tune of 43,986 fans for a three-game series versus Ole Miss. The nearly 44,000 fans on the weekend set an NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

During the 2025 season, the Diamond Dawg faithful showed up in droves as 330,009 fans appeared for 30 games at The Dude with Mississippi State receiving the second-largest average attendance in the nation, averaging 11,000 fans per game. The Diamond Dawgs had 10,000+ fans at 18 games last season at Dudy Noble Field.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites or luxurious Left Field Lofts.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the Left Field Lounge™. Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of the 96 outfield lounges in the iconic two-level outfield tailgate.

Once a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — lined the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field. Now, the permanent lounge spaces are connected to the concourse, allowing everyone to stroll through and experience the iconic lounge culture.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU supporters now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party.

FACILITY EXPANSION

Over the past five decades many projects have commenced at the current site, including a pair of demolitions and countless upgrades to "The Dude." Of the multiple renovations and advancements, the park was demolished and reconstructed in 1987 and 2018.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and advancing to the program's second College World Series, setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

Crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s, as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen led the 1985 Bulldogs to SEC and regional championships, earning MSU's highest national finish at the time, a tie for third place at the College World Series.

The first upgrade to the current site came in 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball student-athlete and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inn, Inc., as MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base.

Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had out-grown the cozy confines of "The Dude" in the mid 1980s. Two years after that magical '85 season, Mississippi State unveiled an impressive $3.5 million project that made Dudy Noble Field the biggest baseball venue in the Southeastern Conference.

In 1986, the stadium was demolished and rebuilt in less than nine months to be ready for the 1987 season opener. The new venue featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, an elevated press box, restrooms and ticket, souvenir and concession facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best place to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in annual baseball season ticket sales to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance annually.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing surface. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation from former MSU All-American and Major League Baseball standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid State baseball fan John Grisham donated funding for the next project. In 1993, Grisham's generosity paved the way for the indoor batting tunnel under the first base grandstand. In August 1998, construction got under way on the ambitious project to add 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. With the project completed prior to the 2000 season, the permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

Prior to the start of the 2003 season, 46-foot Major League foul poles were added. In 2004, the upgrades to the facility included a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding the nation's largest on-campus facility grew prior to the 2005 campaign with the completion of the impressive Palmeiro Center and the baseball coaches office complex.

A massive 68,000-square foot, climate-controlled turf indoor practice facility, the Palmeiro Center is located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious, $3.8 million facility was made possible by a generous lead gift of former Bulldog great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife, Lynne. The structure features a regulation infield practice area, additional training space and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and "The Dude", the baseball coaches complex was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Also part of the Palmeiro Center is the Robinson-Galloway-Tatum Weight Room, which was added to the Palmeiro Center following the 2021 National Championship run for MSU. It is a new 7,100-plus square foot weight room adjacent to the indoor baseball field (the largest of its kind in the country) was made possible from the former players and donors.

From 2009-12, facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system, a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts.

Even the grandstand got a bit grander with a resurfacing and repainting project. The endeavor was topped off with all-new cup holder-equipped maroon chairback seats. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign, work was completed on the new sound system. The 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributed sound to a 78-speaker system to amplify the atmosphere at Dudy Noble Field.

The second demolition at the current site occurred following the 2017 season and the $68 million facility opened its gates for the 2019 campaign. Architect Wier Boerner Allin, along with consultants Populous and famed stadium architect/State alum Janet Marie Smith designed the project, while construction manager ICM and general contractor JESCO Construction, Inc. oversaw the construction.

Covering 12 acres of land on the Mississippi State University campus, the 230,000 square foot facility carries on Dudy Noble Field's legacy as the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball." Installation of the second largest scoreboard in college baseball, measuring 43 feet wide by 60 feet high, started the project in 2017. The board, which was the largest in college baseball upon instillation, is larger than boards owned by three Major League Baseball teams. The addition of 96 permanent Left Field Lounge rigs encircling the outfield followed during the fall of 2018.

The concourse and lower-level grandstands were in place for the 2018 season, with the Diamond Suites, upper-deck reserved seating area and three unique club areas – Farm Bureau Triple Crown Club, Charlie and Dana Stephenson Omaha Club and The Rooftop Club –were completed prior to the 2019 campaign. The newest version of Dudy Noble Field also features increased restroom facilities and concession points of sale.

The player spaces also received an upgrade, expanding to cover 18,000 square feet underneath the facility. The fully-equipped Bruce and Julie Martin Locker Room includes an embedded equipment room, houses 40 wooden lockers and features an oversized, dimensional halo-lit '85 Script Mississippi State sign suspended overhead in the middle of the room.

The more spacious locker room includes an attached training room with whirlpool and fully-functional fueling station. The Mitch Moreland Hitting Tunnel, which is equipped with HitTrax, and Turner & Gloria Wingo Team Lounge are easily accessed from the home dugout, with the eye-popping player entrance and Hassell H. Franklin Omaha Room greeting players as they enter the facility. The Pat McMahon Pitching Lab is also housed under the stadium, featuring arm care and conditioning equipment, one oversized turfed mound with three pitching rubbers and state of the art video equipment.

DIAMOND DAWG TIMELINE

May 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curve ball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, is a sparkling 12-1.

1893

October 12 — A&M defeats Ole Miss, 6-3, in its first intercollegiate baseball game, which begins the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

1909

April 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a doubleheader in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56 1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters and one six-hitter.

1918

April 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. Pepper's shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College, 1-0.

1920

April 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships.

1924

May 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Ole Miss. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. "Buddy" Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in Major League Baseball with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

1947

April 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at the "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

May 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949
